

Love at Every Sight

Mr. Pradeepkumar. S

Your lovely eyes have made me forget myself instantly,
Your lovely sight has made me forgo my sleep incidentally,
Then I started looking at you undeviatingly,
And you were in my eyes constantly.

Your look has eroded my reason evidently,
And your beauty has captured my attention Immediately,
The urge to see you has grown within me when you are not visible suddenly,
And this is the moment that doesn't recue in one's life accidentally.

I have not written this apologetically but to cherish the moment with you affectionately.
